IF CONTESTED, THE ELECTION WOULD GO TO CONGRESS

In Event of Deadlock Senate Would Have to Decide Between Vice-Presidents

REPUBLICANS WANT RECOUNT BEFORE CONCEDED.

New York, Nov. 10.—The republican national committee, through its chairman, W. R. Wilcox, this afternoon issued a formal notice that it will demand a recount of votes before the re-election of Woodrow Wilson as president is conceded.

Chairman Wilcox handed out the following statement: "The result still depends upon the vote in a few close states. It must be borne in mind that the results thus far announced are in most states unofficial and may be changed by the official count required by the laws of these states. Twice during these unofficial complications, yesterday in California, mistakes in addition were announced from that state, substantially changing figures previously given. It is a common experience that the result of the official count almost always varies from the returns first announced.

"Where the vote is as close as that reported in several states, it may well be that material changes will result from the official count. We owe it to the country to take all necessary steps to see that an exact and honest count is made. When the current seemed to be running against Mr. Wilson on Wednesday the democratic managers announced their intention to demand a recount in every close state. All we desire is to make sure that the vote is counted as cast."

The statement was given out following a conference between Geo. W. Perkins, Geo. W. Wickersham, former attorney general; Herbert Parson, national committeeman; Senator Weeks, Travis H. Whitney, Col. George Harvey and Mr. Wilcox.

Mr. Hughes did not take part in the conference, though it was understood that Mr. Wilcox had talked with him about the republican committee plans during the morning.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Washington and the nation are due to witness legislative fireworks in congress during the second term of President Wilson.

On the face of the congressional election returns the proverbial "monkey and the parrot" affair, the controversy of the "killenny cats" and the "Donnybrook fair" will pale into insignificance, as tests of skill and belligerence beside the battles of the approaching sixty-fifth congress.

With democratic control of the senate assured, the lower house will be the big battle ground. So far as the returns now show there will likely be no real majority in the house, and

Total three days

The campaign for a greater Board of Commerce for a Greater Albany continued today with unabated vigor. Realizing that this was the third and last day of the whirlwind canvass, the team workers reported promptly and started out upon the canvass with enthusiastic determination. A number of them declared their purpose not to cease the work until every possible prospect had been seen and had been given an opportunity to show his loyalty to his community.

At the luncheon at 12:30 today the reports of the team captains were roundly applauded and a number of expressions of gratification made that the total results were sufficient to insure an up-to-date and well equipped Board of Commerce. It was explained by E. L. Quarles of the McKeand Service Company, at the luncheon that each member of the new Board of Commerce would receive two referendums—one relating to nominations for officers and another relating to plan or program of work for the new organization. These referendums will be received Monday morning and must be returned to the headquarters of the Board of Commerce by 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

To Elect Officers.

By virtue of the referendum, each member of the organization is assured that his wishes will be considered and that he has a voice in the management of its affairs. There are to be elected a president, two vice-presidents, treasurer and a board of directors. Three of the directors head the department work and with the four executive officers constitute a board of seven. The nominations are to be passed on by a special committee on organization and a report made at the general organization meeting which is to be held next Wednesday night. At this meeting, there will be an election for the permanent officers to serve until the end of the fiscal year. The three highest candidates for each office as shown by the referendum will be considered as nominated and the meeting will select one of them for each office. The second referendum deals with matters in reference to the work of the organization as for instance, the thing of first importance that should be undertaken by the new Board of Commerce for the good of any particular line of business or for the good of the city as a whole. Each member will be requested also to express his preference as to the department in which he will serve.

Postal Telegraph Aids With Bulletin Service

The Postal Telegraph Company has been of valuable assistance in giving election results by its free bulletin service, which drew many anxious searchers for election news to its office.

TWIN CITIES WILL CELEBRATE GLORIOUS WILSON WIN TONIGHT

There'll be a joyful time in the Twin Cities tonight! In celebration of the re-election of Woodrow Wilson, the first democrat to succeed himself since Andrew Jackson, a big parade with trimmings and oratory will be given tonight.

The parade will form on Second avenue at 8 o'clock, and will march to Bank street. The speaking will probably take place at the court house. The Booster band has been employed to furnish the music, and there will be many added attractions. Gus Bassett, Wilson supporter, will be the marshal in charge, and the white rooster will be borne aloft by T. H. Alexander.

Torchlights can be obtained at Prentiss-Dillehay Drug Co.

THOUSANDS CALLED DAILY OFFICE FOR NEWS OF ELECTION

TWIN CITIES ARE PUT ON MAP AS NORTH ALABAMA'S CENTER OF INFORMATION.

Hundreds of long distance calls from all points in North Alabama and literally thousands of local calls from the vicinity of Albany and Decatur continued to pour into the Daily office today for final news on the election. The flood of wire interrogations began to come in early Tuesday night. They continued without ceasing until this morning when the news of the big triumph of the democratic party became general.

It is estimated that the Daily received several hundred calls from Athens, Elkmont, Harris and other points north of this city on the Louisville & Nashville railroad and from Town Creek, Leighton and other points on the Southern west, as well as many from Hartselle and other points on the L. & N. south, and on the Southern east as far as Huntsville.

In addition to this one man has been kept busy, and often two men, answering the calls over the local phones of the Daily from points in Morgan and Lawrence counties.

Never before has a presidential race been so interesting to North Alabamians. As the information centers of North Alabama the Twin Cities have been put on the map by a big majority. From this time on it is believed that North Alabamians from all corners will turn to the Twin Cities for information on all big news events because of the unexcelled press, telegraphic and telephone facilities of the cities. The Twin Cities knew the result for certain in the presidential race as early as any cities in the United States. And the Twin Cities are happy today.

FARM EXPERT TO VISIT COUNTY AND DELIVER SPEECHES

H. M. COTTRELL READY TO AID IN SPREADING THE DOCTRINE OF DIVERSIFICATION.

H. M. Cottrell, farm agent for the Memphis Business Association, is ready to come to Morgan county to aid in spreading the doctrine of diversification. Announcement to this effect was made here this morning by W. M. Chenault, who has been in conference with Mr. Cottrell.

Mr. Cottrell will come here if extended an invitation by a commercial organization, as he desires the co-operation of the business men in his work. It is expected that this invitation will be extended a little later on, and that Mr. Cottrell will deliver a number of addresses in Morgan county before the winter weather sets in.

Morgan County Returns Being Counted Today

County officials are engaged this afternoon in canvassing the official vote of Morgan county cast in the election of Tuesday. Returns will be available for publication in the Daily tomorrow, as the count will not be completed until late this afternoon.

However, all the democratic nominees in Morgan county have been rejected by large majorities. Because of this fact and the overshadowing interest locally in the presidential situation, no special effort was made to secure the returns from the county.

California Gives Wilson More Than 3,000 Plurality and New Mexico Also Goes; Minnesota in Doubt

With New Hampshire and Minnesota still in doubt, the electoral college, on the face of the returns, stands as follows:

Wilson—272.
Hughes—243.
Doubtful—16.
Necessary to elect—266.

(BY JOHN EDWIN NEVIN.)
International News Service.)

New York, Nov. 10.—With Woodrow Wilson and Thomas R. Marshall winners of the 1916 presidential handicap in the face of all returns, the republican national organization today set in motion the machinery to contest their victory.

The result was that there will be a cloud upon the democratic victory for at least another ten days.

On the face of the available information, action by the republicans, and they themselves admitted this, seemed hopeless. The leaders said privately today that the figures which showed that the president had won in California, New Mexico and North Dakota had been checked by their own representatives, "but seemed correct."

However, they are making an investigation through the national committeemen and state chairmen in each of these states. It was frankly explained today that the task of forcing an actual recount of the ballots cast would be a hard one. It will, however, be demanded if the information received today and tomorrow would seem to warrant such action.

The position of republicans as enunciated by Republican National Chairman Wm. R. Wilcox today was as follows:

"No man in these days should hold any public office on whose title there is the slightest cloud. We welcome an investigation into any and all of our acts and we believe that the democracy should do the same."

Meanwhile the leaders of the two parties were making desperate efforts today to find out whether the electoral vote of any of the state had been split.

Both parties today were claiming Minnesota, which remained in doubt. It will be impossible to place this state until after the soldier vote is canvassed next Tuesday. Should Wilson finally carry Minnesota it is stated that the republican leaders will drop all plans for an extended contest.

The count was continued in New Hampshire today by the secretary of state, but neither party will accept his count as conclusive. It is certain that another canvass will be demanded.

HUGHES DIRECTING CONTEST.
(International News Service.)

New York, Nov. 10.—Chas. E. Hughes to a large extent is personally directing the plans to contest the election in states where the vote was close. Mr. Hughes appeared in the Astor Hotel shortly after 8 o'clock this morning and smiled and chatted with friends.

New York, Nov. 10.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt's sole comment today on the re-election of Wilson was:
"Excuse me, I have nothing to say."

NEW MEXICO ALSO IS IN WILSON BAND WAGON.
(International News Service.)

Sante Fe, N. M., Nov. 10.—President Wilson has carried New Mexico unless the 99 precincts yet to be heard from go almost solidly for Hughes.

Wilson had a lead of 1,410 at 8 a. m., and although democratic leaders expected this to be cut down slightly in the final returns they were confident that the missing 99 precincts can make no material change in the result.

HUGHES WON'T CONCEDE THAT SOMETHING HIT HIM.
(International News Service.)

New York, Nov. 10.—Chas. E. Hughes refused today to admit that Wilson had been re-elected. This was made known by his secretary, Lawrence Greene.
"Mr. Hughes refuses to concede the election of President Wilson, but he has no statement to make," said Mr. Greene.

VANCE McCORMICK, THE INTELLIGENT OPTIMIST.

When William F. McCombs stepped down from the leadership of the democratic national committee in order to become a candidate for United States senator from New York, the Daily felt that the party had lost a great general. It almost feared that none could be found who could fill his place. McCombs had piloted the national candidates to the greatest victory since the civil war, although he had not been put to the supreme test of fighting against heavy odds.

Now the Daily is ready to acknowledge that Vance McCormick is the peer of any pilot who ever steered a party through a stormy sea. From the time that he was named for the high honor by President Wilson until the final flash went over the wires that California had gone democratic and that Wilson had won, Mr. McCormick displayed not only great leadership but most remarkable optimism. "The west is on fire for Wilson," he said before the election. "It's a Wilson landslide," he said on the day of the election. "Wilson has won—wait until the count is complete," he said in substance on the first night of the counting, and six consecutive statements to this effect were issued in so many hours. "I stick to my claim of 288 votes," said McCormick in the two heart-breaking days that followed the close of the polls. And the result, as finally announced, shows that McCormick was not talking to keep up his spirits; it shows that he was an intelligent optimism, inspired by the fullest knowledge of conditions in every state and backed up by a supreme confidence in the wisdom of the people.

The democratic party is ready to accord to Vance McCormick the fullest recognition of his invaluable services. He alone of all the democrats since the sixties has the distinction of directing a campaign that won without the favorable verdict of New York state.

THE LEDGER IS TAKEN TO TASK BY MR. HEFLIN.

(Reprinted from the Daily's editorial of Nov. 3 as being especially apropos in the light of faint-hearted newspaper support for Wilson from Alabama newspapers.)

The esteemed Birmingham Ledger complains because it is taken to task by Congressman Tom Heffin for not showing any great degree of confidence and enthusiasm in the democratic presidential campaign. "The Ledger prefers a reputation for truth to one of brag," answers the Ledger to the plaint of the congressman.

This is entirely true, but at the same time The Daily has noticed that the Birmingham papers, with the exception of The News, have been mighty lukewarm about the presidential race. They seem to take the attitude that the issues have already been prejudged by the voters and Mr. Wilson's defeat is almost sure. The Age-Herald's attitude for some months has been notorious. Indeed, since the passage of the eight-hour law both the Montgomery Advertiser and the Age-Herald have been rather weak in the faith, one may judge by reading their columns. The Washington correspondent of the Age-Herald, one might think, has strayed into the republican national committee rooms and obtained his daily batch of telegraphic dope rather than into the democratic headquarters, so incited with venom for the democratic president have his dispatches been. The attitude of The Daily and the attitude of every other democratic newspaper should have been to constantly harp on the issues of the campaign both to aid the raising of campaign funds and to bring out a big vote on election day. The Daily has said time and time again that President Wilson's chances of success are better than those of Mr. Hughes, and about ten days ago it began to look like a landslide. Mr. Heffin confirmed our judgment when he came back from an extended trip through the east and middle west. If the betting indicates anything, if straw votes indicate anything, if the apparent drift of sentiment throughout the country indicates anything, these things indicate a democratic victory. The Daily has been standing on its hind legs and telling North Alabama democrats of these things despite what Birmingham democratic papers have failed to do.

WHY WE ARE GLAD THAT WILSON WON.

The Daily has a miscellaneous collection of reasons why we are happy that President Wilson has been re-elected.

Here are some of them:

Because he was the democratic nominee.

Because he refused to bow to the foreign element in the United States, thus losing their support.

Because he had made probably the most capable president the United States has ever had and thus deserved re-election.

Because he is a southern man and will not allow this section of the nation to be given anything but a square deal.

Because he lost New York state.

Because he was the first American president to stand up for the rights of the American laborer.

Because he made possible a new political alignment between the far west and the south to maintain political control against the monied interests of the east.

Because the republicans fought him in an underhanded manner.

Because he did not invade Mexico as Wall street capital wanted him to do.

Because he has refused to mix religion with politics.

Because he has kept us out of war.

THE WEST AND SOUTH: A BETTER DAY DAWNS.

A new and brighter day has dawned in American politics. A new political sun began to rise early last Wednesday morning when belated returns from California began to indicate that the Golden Gate state along with almost every other state west of the Mississippi, had cast such a heavy vote for President Wilson that his re-election was assured.

If this new political alignment between the west and the south—the combination that William Jennings Bryan strove for 16 years to effect—can be maintained, it means a cleaner and more wholesome government for the people of the United States.

It will mean that the control of the big money powers of the east on the government of the nation has been broken into a thousand pieces. It will mean that national elections in the future will be decided by the pure-blooded Americans of the west and south. It spells the beginning of a new political era when Anglo-Saxons will rule in this nation.

The Solid South and the Solid West are in the saddle!

WOMAN SUFFRAGE AND PROHIBITION HAVE BECOME NATIONAL ISSUES.

The elections of Tuesday indicate that there are two great issues that are certain to be fought out in the elections of the future. These are woman suffrage and prohibition. Several more states have gone dry; enough states are now controlled by the woman vote to make it impossible for any party to win with the opposition of this vote.

While statistics have not yet proven that women side against their husbands; that they vote independently and think differently; it has been shown rather conclusively that they hold the balance of power in the United States. Admitting this, it is only matter of time until the suffrage question will be emphasized to such an extent that no political party will dare to dodge the issue. And it is very likely that the party that declares for woman suffrage will also declare for national prohibition. The two issues combined would be unbeatable.

The republican party will hardly be the first to advocate national prohibition.

WILSON'S MEXICAN POLICY.

Say what you please about President Wilson's Mexican policy, but before you say it just remember that the president carried every state along the Mexican border. He swept California, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas. The popular pluralities for Wilson along the border states will be in excess of 200,000. It will probably reach a quarter of a million. The president carried El Paso, Nogales, Ariz., Columbus, N. M., and other border cities.

What more sweeping endorsement of the democratic Mexican policy could be had?

The American people would rather be governed from the White House than Potsdam palace in Berlin.

It's a little strange, but Mr. Wilson, the only democratic candidate for the presidency since the party platform declared for a single term is the only democratic president to succeed himself since the war.

Take a map of the United States and you will find that Wilson carried practically every state west of the Mississippi river and south of the Ohio. These states will in future boss the politics of the country.

The west was so much on fire for Wilson, just as Vance McCormick said, that it burned Mr. Hughes to a crisp.

Why not paraphrase Kipling:

"South is south and west is west, Always the twain will meet."

If the progressives of the far west buried the hatchet, they must have buried it in the flesh of the elephant!

Democracy owes nothing to Murphy and his Tammany machine. They laid down on Wilson.

Mr. Roosevelt was entirely right when he said that the American people could be trusted.

The Daily still contends that Woodrow Wilson is a man of destiny. New York and Illinois will admit it.

And he carried Ohio by 50,000 despite Cincinnati.

Let's burn the red fire tonight!

Muscle Shoals next!

Fannie Ward in the Columbia University-Lasky Prize Photoplay

"WITCHCRAFT"

At the Masonic and Star Saturday. Fannie Ward, brilliant Lasky star, who scored a sensation by her acting in the Lasky-Paramount photoplay "The Cheat," will be seen in a role of tense dramatic quality in the forthcoming production entitled "Witchcraft," by R. Ralston Reed.

Universal interest is attached to this picture by reason of the fact that it was selected from among hundreds of manuscripts written by the Big Columbia University class in photo dramatics. The Lasky Company produces this picture as an evidence of its sincerity in attempting to stimulate American authors to create for the screen.

The story tells of a little New England maid, who lived in a stern, superstitious, Puritan colony. The time of the action is about 1650 when persons were persecuted on the charge of being witches. Circumstances brought this charge against Suzette. The photoplay tells of her miraculous escape from the death penalty, while the theme contains also a love story of intense interest.

"STAND UP."

Mr. President Woodrow Wilson, after a term of four years as president of the United States, the people of the United States, by experience, as well as by a preponderance of evidence, have found you guilty of:

1st. Creating a regional bank system, whereby you deprived Wall street of the power to control the money power of the United States, thereby preventing them from bringing on a panic when they so desired.

2nd. For using your best efforts in every possible way to keep the nation out of war, and for enforcing strict neutrality.

3rd. For establishing a rural banking system, whereby the oppressed farmer can secure money on a long time loan at a low rate of interest, so as to extricate himself from his pressing creditors.

4th. For having enacted the 8-hour law for the benefit of the poor laboring man, to enable him to rest his weary limbs and enjoy the companionship of his family.

Voice of the People

Editor Albany-Decatur Daily:

When a man writes a thing so apropos and thoroughly fine as your editorial on the Far West and the Solid South I have to tell him how much I like it. I hope it will be widely quoted. Since the negro vote has been eliminated the South and the West have the same class of voters, i. e., the all-American stock, with slight admixture of foreigners, while the north and east are largely influenced by foreign-born elements.

Sincerely yours,

LIVINGSTON T. MAYS.

WILSON, FOREVER!

Hurrah! Hurrah! for Wilson, With one united voice; Let every patriotic heart Applaud our country's choice.

Wilson! How grandly sounds Thy dear beloved name, From north to south, from east to west, Are echoes of thy fame.

There's not a loyal heart today Throughout our glorious nation, But swells with love and gratitude And waits congratulations.

Thy glorious acts and deeds of love Will live through endless ages, Will crown old history's pages. —Mrs. A. E. McGregor.

Dr. Sholl, Princeton Man, Strong Champion of President Wilson

At least one minister of the gospel stood for hours Tuesday night before the Daily building and watched the election bulletins flashed. After that he kept in constant touch with all sources of information, keeping close tab on the exciting presidential race. The minister was Dr. W. N. Sholl, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Decatur, a Princeton man and strong admirer of the president.

"Mr. Wilson was very popular with the boys at Princeton," said Dr. Sholl this morning. "His heart was with the poor boy who was struggling for an education, and he was loved and admired by them all. His struggle to make Princeton a school largely for rich men's sons—democratic history. Mr. Wilson has always been for the people; he is a democrat by inclination. It is this that makes his re-election so pleasing to the great voting masses."

"I don't see the Dobbs' parlor lit up on Thursday evenings any more." "Then it must be true that Marie is engaged."

HARVEST WEEK.

The Harvest Week celebration has progressed to its fourth day, and what a success it has been—suppers, dancers, art gallery and other entertainments. Thursday evening the Music Study club was in charge, and gave excellent entertainment to a large and appreciative audience. The audience was met at the door by the president, Mrs. E. W. Godbey, and others, who acted as ushers and gave out programs. The stage was beautiful with a background of autumn branches, with a relief of brilliant dahlias and large yellow chrysanthemums confined in floor vases. A white covering concealed the front of the stage, on this was a trace of greens, the edge being outlined in magnolia leaves. This was the artistic work of Mrs. E. W.
Godbey, Mrs. Otto Moebes and Mrs.
B. E. Preuit. The following program was given:(a) Carmen Wilson
(b) Folk Song Grainger
Gavotte PopperMrs. E. E. Graves, Miss Clarkson
One Fleeting Hour ... Fuhrman-Lee
Herman Troup.Second Rhapsody Liszt
Mrs. Burr, Mrs. Harris.
Sextette Douzetti
Mrs. Borton, Mrs. Poynter.
H. Troup, H. Binford, E. Loveless
Mr. Gilliam.
Polly of the Circus Margaret Mayo
Miss Johnson.
Chanson Provencale Dell' Acqua
Miss Clarkson.Chorus Humoresque Dvorak
"Carmen" was a brilliant chorus, followed by the curious Folk Song,
"There Was a Pig Went Out to Dig," that really was weird enough to have been dedicated to the memory of Edward Greig, and was sung with rhythm and jimp. The Popper Gavotte by Mrs. E. E. Graves and Miss Clarkson was an interpretation, giving clear understanding of the Bohemian style, its abrupt changes and great climaxes.
Mr. Herman Troup appeared in the Fuhrman-Lee arrangement of "One Fleeting Hour," his interpretation was highly received.The second part was opened with the Second Rhapsody, by Liszt, by Mrs. Seneca Burr and Mrs. A. J.
Harris, rendered in the true Hungarian style, Mrs. Burr playing the bold, abrupt heavy parts, while Mrs. Harris embroidered it all with chromatics.
The Sextette, that famous number from the Lucia di Lammermoor—from the first impassioned notes of "Edgar"
—the music flowed on with mellifluous sweetness, gradually reaching a climax that gave an amazing display of vocal fireworks, so peculiar to Douzetti in this, his great serious opera.
Miss Fannie Johnson as "Polly of the Circus," carried sympathy with her through each of the heart-breaking incidents that finally led to the little girl's happiness. Miss Fannie has a way with her smile, eyes, voice and gesture of completing character delineation—reflecting an unexpected realism. "Chanson Provencale," by Miss Clarkson (our Margaret) was received with rounds of applause. The melting sweetness of her voice was like the exquisite coloring of a dew-drown or the velvety quality of a rose. The program closed with a chorus, "Hu-moresque," sung to Sandman words.
The whole was the effort of Mesdames W. R. Shelton, E. E. Graves and Herman Troup.

JOHNSON-ERP.

Miss Gladys Johnson, of Madison, and Mr. Ernest W. Erp were united in marriage on yesterday afternoon at the Presbyterian manse, Rev. W. B.
Strong officiating, in the presence of relatives and friends. The bride has been a visitor here and was at one time a pupil in the schools and has many friends and admirers in these cities. Mr. Erp is a valued employe of the L. & N. shops. Mr. and Mrs.
Erp will be at home at the residence of the father of the groom, J. P. Erp, on Tenth avenue, south.

ROWE-HUNTER.

A pretty wedding occurred Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Rowe, only the immediate family witnessing the happy event. A pretty decoration of green, white and yellow was used, being emphasized in chrysanthemums and ferns. Miss Fannie Rowe gave a pre-nuptial program, its finale being the wedding march that summoned bridal pair. They were met by Rev. L.
A. Nalls, of Falkville, who made them
one. The bride wore a two-piece suit of old blue broadcloth, with fur trimmings and harmonizing accessories; she carried bride's roses. Mr. and Mrs. Hunter left immediately after the ceremony for Chattanooga. They will be at home after the 20th.

MASQUERADE PARTY.

Miss Orven McMullan entertained at a masquerade party at her home on Fifth avenue, south, Wednesday night. At a late hour refreshments were served. Those invited were:
Misses Jiman Crocker, Rosa Kerner,
Mattie Nunn, Kate Nunn, Margaret
Mulligan, Annie Goldel, Derriel Mixon, Irene Hatchett, Clara Thomas, Ruth
Thomas, Myrtle Sandusky, Alta Willitz, Adeock, Odette Hamilton, Cor-

U. D. C.

Mrs. E. D. Whitman was hostess on Thursday afternoon to the U. D. C.
For the reception of the society the home was tastefully decorated with trailing vines and handsome chrysanthemums. After the business session the following program was given:
"The Beginning of the New South," by Mrs. W. A. Curry, read in her breezy style, held her hearers.
Reading—Mrs. W. N. Hall—"A Galaxy of Southern Heroes," was greatly enjoyed, as was Mrs. Sholl's instrumental number.
Miss Mary Penick in a clear, beau-tiful voice rendered a vocal selection that captivated her hearers.The hostess, assisted by Mesdames C. Hutchenson and J. O. Camp, served a salad course.PICTURE GALLERY
AT THE GARAGE.The picture gallery at the Malone garage proved a very amusing feature of the fun of Wednesday evening.
Mr. Ben Martin was the fortunate silhouette guesser of Decatur, and Mrs.
Harry T. Gill of Albany. Master Skeggs Crawford is running a good race and pretty close to any winner.
Dr. W. M. Murray performed an operation on a republican head on Wednesday and from the dreadful finds we now know why Wilson was re-elected president.MISS DOROTHY MAYER
A ROOK HOSTESS.Thursday Miss Dorothy Mayer entertained at rook. Two tables were arranged for the game, in which Miss Jean Buchanan made the top score.
Later ices were served.The Saturday club will entertain at rook at the Malone garage from 8 to 10:30 this evening for the benefit of the Benevolent hospital.Merrill Bowen entertained his Sunday school class last evening at his home on Chestnut street, East Albany.
Music was enjoyed and a lunch served.
Those present were: Rev. R. F.

that is probably the reason that he knows that the newspaper man's primary weakness is the love of a good cigar. Being also a man of deeds, he did not content himself with mere knowledge. He went further, and yesterday evening, just after the Daily extra had announced that California had gone for Wilson, he presented the Daily force with a box of choice cigars. And today the Daily is strong

Night Police F. J. Perchey discovered and put to flight two robbers who had effected an entrance in the back door of D. W. Neill's store at 12:30 last night. A couple of iron bars sawed in two, open grips, and quite a number of shoe boxes ready to be emptied into the grips was the sight that greeted the policeman, who, in patrolling West Main street saw the men in the store, and fired upon them. The robbers, appearing to be two in number, returnedthe fire as they ran. Blood hounds have been put on their trail this

"THE FASHION"

STEAMER IS SUNK; 20 LIVES ARE LOST WAR'S END IS NEAR, SAYS GEN. FRENCH

(International News Service.)
Calumet, Mich., Nov. 10.—The steamer Castalia foundered off Keweenaw Point, Manitowish Island, early today with the loss of 20 lives. Only one survivor, Chas. Laundry, has been picked up.

Cotton Market Opens Low, Then Jumps Up And Continues Climb

The cotton market today reflected the sentiment of the nation, confident now that Wilson prosperity is assured. The market opened low, then began to climb upward. Soon it was jumping. It is expected that 20-cent cotton will rule within the next few weeks.

Glad to Get Rid of It.

Simpson had that run-down feeling which frequently accompanies the flowers—and chills—of spring. So he hid himself to a doctor to be healed.

"Hum!" the medicine man said majestically, after thumping Simpson black and blue, "what you want is fresh air. Get out into the country more than you do. You should take a long motor run every day."

"But I haven't a motor car," the patient protested.

"That's soon rectified," the doctor said with a benignant smile, "I'll sell you mine!"

(International News Service.)
London, Nov. 10.—Field Marshal French, commander of the British home forces, expressed as his opinion here last night that the war is approaching a climax. "It will be reached either in the winter or next spring," The newspapers are all prominently printing French's opinion.

Pip-Pip!

With a traveling rug and four or five bags the stout old gentleman was endeavoring to make a graceful exit from the crowded railway carriage. All went well until he reached the door, when he stumbled and brought down No. 9 boot on the pet toe of a brawny Scot.

"Hoots, toots, mon!" groaned the injured one. "Canna ye look whaur ye're going? Hoot, mon, hoot!"

The overburdened traveler slammed the door behind him and put his head through the window.

"Hoot yourself!" he retorted. "I'm a traveler, not a motor 'bus!"

Fullness of the Heart.

In the days before the war there was a story of a prima donna, wrestling with her inadequate knowledge of our language to express her gratitude to a Dublin audience, who wished she could have a window over her head to show how she felt, when the irrepressible gallery boy cried: "Won't a pane in the stummick do as well, ma'am?"

RUSS DRIVING BACK GERMANS WITHIN 10 MILES OF RAILROAD

HEAVY ARTILLERY DUELS ON SOMME FRONT ARE ALSO REPORTED.

(International News Service.)
London, Nov. 10.—Desperate efforts are being made by the Russo-Romanian forces in Dobrudja to recapture the Cernavoda-Constanza railroad from the German allies.

Dispatches from Petrograd and Bucharest today stated that Von Mackensen's army had been driven back to a point only 10 miles from the railroad. The Russian and Roumanians in Dobrudja were pounding away at Von Mackensen's line over a front 50 miles wide.

GERMANS RESUME THEIR SOMME FRONT OFFENSIVE.

(International News Service.)
Paris, Nov. 10.—Heavy artillery duels took place on both the Somme and Verdun fronts last night. The cannonade has been particularly severe in the sectors of Fort Vaux and Fort Douaumont, the war office announced. On the Somme front the Germans delivered attacks with picked troops.

AMERICAN ARMY STAYS IN MEXICO

(International News Service.)
Washington, Nov. 10.—With the American-Mexican commission resuming its deliberations at Atlantic City today there was a broad intimation in both state and war department circles that the American troops will not be withdrawn soon.

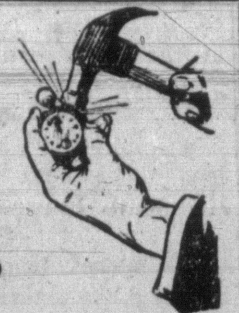

Discussion of the situation, which along with the foreign relations generally has been tabooed during the last days of the political campaign, will not demand immediate official attention.

REPUBLICANS SHOW YELLOW STREAK

Increase the president's lead of 3,131. The remaining nine precincts are in what is considered normally Hughes territory, but they are small ones, and even if they voted solidly for Hughes it would not materially change the present democratic plurality. The figures with 36 missing are: Wilson, 465,669; Hughes, 462,538.

SOLDIER VOTE DETERMINES RESULT IN MINNESOTA.

(International News Service.)
St. Paul, Nov. 10.—Chas. E. Hughes has carried Minnesota by a plurality of approximately 1,000 with the vote of the Minnesota militia on the border, not taken into consideration. Nearly complete returns today gave the republican nominee a lead which will be impossible for Wilson to overcome except through the soldier vote, though the democrats are encouraged by reports that two-thirds of the guardsmen voted for Wilson. Republican headquarters claimed that advances said the militiamen voted strongly for Hughes.

G. O. P. REFUSES TO CONCEDE CALIFORNIA.

(International News Service.)
San Francisco, Nov. 10.—None of the republican leaders in California today would concede that California has gone democratic, despite the practically complete returns from all parts of the state. Chester Rowell, chairman of the republican state committee, acted as spokesman for his colleagues. "I am going to wait for the official count before being convinced," said he.

WILSON'S PLURALITY IS INCREASING IN CALIFORNIA.

(International News Service.)
San Francisco, Nov. 10.—President Wilson's total vote in California was increased a few votes today by complete returns from Clusa county. With only 34 precincts missing the president now has a lead of 3,160.

NEW HAMPSHIRE DOUBTFUL.

(International News Service.)
Concord, N. H., Nov. 10.—The official standing in the presidential race in New Hampshire with eight towns to come in was as follows: Hughes, 42,23; Wilson, 42,616. Hughes' plurality, 107.

IF CONTESTED THE ELECTION WOULD

the democrats will have but a slim plurality.

Indications are that 215 democrats and 211 republicans have been safely elected, with one independent, one socialist, one progressive and one progressive-protectionist.

Of five remaining doubtful districts three are normally republican and two normally democratic.

In the senate the republicans cut down the democratic majority of 16 to 12, leaving the democrats 54 and the republicans 42.

MARSHALL MIGHT BE PRESIDENT, GOSSIP SAYS.

(International News Service.)
Washington, Nov. 10.—The chance of a contest over the electoral vote for president being carried into the house of representatives developed today the possibility that Thomas R. Marshall might serve as the next president of the United States.

There would be as close a struggle in the lower house between Wilson and Hughes as there was at the polls.

An analysis of the house demonstrates that the fight probably would develop into a deadlock which would prevent the election of a president and force the senate to choose either Marshall or Fairbanks as vice president to fill the office of chief executive until the next election.

24 STATES NOW HAVE PROHIBITION

ANTI-SALOON PEOPLE DECLARE PARTIES WILL NOW RECOGNIZE IT.

New York, Nov. 10.—With twenty-four states in the dry column, anti-saloon propagandists today predicted that the success of the movement would lead either the republican or democratic party to adopt a prohibition plank in their platform. The victories of the prohis in Michigan, Nebraska, Montana and South Dakota on Tuesday is attributed largely to the good campaign work of the women.

Grayson Congratulates President's Physician

Probably the only man in Alabama to congratulate Dr. Carey T. Grayson, President Wilson's physician, was Dr. Ambrose Grayson, of Albany, who is a distant relative to the president's physician.

Dr. Grayson wired his congratulations to the Washington physician yesterday. He assured him that Alabama rejoices as much as he does over the re-election of Mr. Wilson.

Don't Guess—

You might not always be right and even though you were, you might not be able to prove it.

Memory plays strange tricks and in the case of cash transactions, without a record, the memory of two persons does not always agree.

Pay your bills by check and avail yourself of the opportunity such a record will give you as a protection and a convenience.

Come in and talk it over—DON'T GUESS.

Morgan County National Bank
